FLOOR OPENED TO THE PUBLIC

Ronald Oshersky, from St. Michael, spoke about the consolidation of the fire department and stated to think twice before they consider anything with consolidation.

Naomi Oaks asked about the Junk in Jerome. Mr. Buncich stated that it is not just in Jerome but through out the Township, Mr. McGee and Chief Barclay are looking into it.

Ruth Villa, asked what was going on with the Slagle property? Attorney William Barbin stated we won all the cases against them but they have no assets to go after in a sheriff sale. Ron McGee is going to suggest to the mother that if they deed over the property to the Township that we would release the judgement. Ruth also asked if the Township could clean up the property and charge the Slagles for the clean up. Attorney William Barbin stated yes but, that is something we would not get back from them either.

Ralph Mlaker from Valley View Drive, asked the Supervisors to sign the petition that they approved a few months ago. Supervisors signed same.
